Father's Thought for the Week

Now, Master, you may let your servant go in peace, according to your word, for my eyes have seen your salvation...

Simeon was able to go in peace to meet the Lord because He had recognized Jesus Christ. When I meet people who are sick, in the hospital, or in hospice care it strikes me that some people are at peace and some are very anxious and afraid. I know which way I hope to be: how can I live more like Simeon and have his peace?

Catholic Daughters give their time, talent, ideas, knowledge, dedication, and enthusiasm. In return, members receive spiritual enhancement, leadership skills, affirmation, community, friendships, and more! Because all Catholic Daughters are leaders in their communities, we offer some practical leadership skill techniques. Join us at our next meeting on Tuesday, February 4, at 6:30 am at St. Patrick Church.

We are still in need of volunteers to help with FEED THE CHILDREN. The event is SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 22 in the Father Kottas Social Hall starting at 9:00am. Please sign up to help with this wonderful volunteer opportunity.

SAVE THE DATE: Vacation Bible School will be June 9-13 this year. Your students won't want to miss out on this exciting week. More details to follow.

LIFE ACCORDING TO JEAN.....

- Mike told me that I wasn't the boss of him. We laughed then he made my coffee and went grocery shopping.
• It's not that I want more shoes. It's just they keep making them in my size.
• Just cleared out some space in the freezer sounds so much more productive than I just devoured another gallon of ice cream.
• No one gets their feelings hurt more than your dog watching you take the last bite of food.
• I'll tell you why I can't lose weight...I've got metal fillings in my teeth and my refrigerator magnets keep pulling me into the kitchen.
• Me to my dog: "No the bag says 1 cup." My dog: "The Oreo box surely doesn't say 16 Oreos Jean but here we are."
• Marriage is loving someone so much that you can overlook the fact that occasionally they are the most frustrating person in the world.
• Noses are red, fingers are blue, I'm tired of Winter, how about you?
• You only need two tools in life...WD40 and duct tape. If it doesn't move and should, use WD-40. If it moves and shouldn't, use duct tape.
• I finally have my bills washed, laundry paid, clothes baked, and dinner is in the dryer. I've got this.
• The secret to surviving the cold is to put on enough layers you can't fit through the door to go outside.
• Marriage tip: When your wife starts a sentence with "when you get a chance..." just go ahead and start putting your shoes on. She means now.
• Tuesday is like a speed bump...you didn't see it coming, but now you're bracing for impact. Just saying!!!

HAVE A GREAT WEEK, STAY SAFE, BE NICE TO EACH OTHER
